

Taken at the Flood - Mary Elizabeth Braddon

Taken at the Flood
Mary Elizabeth Braddon

Brought up by a parish schoolmaster with a hidden past, Sylvia Carew dreams of a future devoid of poverty. Will she be faithful to the man she adores or will she opt for the chance at wealth and position? What lengths will she go to and when all is said and done, will she be gratified with her "happily ever after"? Romance, ambition and greed, deceit and selfishness are at the root of this sensational Victorian novel by Braddon. As usual she manages to keep us in suspense until her well constructed surprise ending.
- Summary by Celine Major

Read by Celine Major. 36 Tracks. Total running time: 17:59:22

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.

Image from "Woman Vintage Postcard" by Karen Arnold on publicdomainpictures.net.
Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by TriciaG. This design is in the public domain.

Taken at the Flood - Mary Elizabeth Braddon